

Quiz Night on Thursday 15th November 2018.

Folks tell me we've not had a quiz for some time. Held in the large space formed by combining two Mountford rooms and using the cinema equipment it proved very successful. Over 40 people came and seven tables competed for prizes. All the food, organised by Richard Suter, and most of the drink, organised by Shiraz Jamal, was consumed.

The quiz was sourced by our meetings organiser, Naomi Pattison who also made an excellent 'Quiz Master'. There were two rounds of 24 questions and we awarded a prize of a big tin of sweets to the winning table at the end of each round. The questions were in picture form and Shiraz worked the Powerpoint display, co-ordinating with Naomi to ensure everyone had time to answer the questions.

Unlike our regular talks evenings, everyone had a chance to communicate with each other and mingle, instead of sitting in rows, listening to the speaker and then going home!

Jan Butler organised the raffle.
